8:30, 9:45, & 11:00 a.m.

Welcome

We are glad you are here! Thank you for joining us for worship this Sunday. Members of this congregation have been gathering here to worship since 1804. Over the past two centuries our congregation has changed, but our mission remains the same: to make disciples of Jesus Christ. We are inspired by the words of John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, who encouraged believers to “do all the good you can, in all the ways you can.”

Attendance

Please let us know of your attendance this morning by completing the pew pad.

Newcomer Orientation

We invite you to learn about the life of our church, ways you can get involved, and how to become a member by attending Newcomer Orientation, which is held the second Sunday of the month at 9:45 and 11:00 a.m.

Sunday School

We offer Sunday school for children age 2 through adult each Sunday from 9:45-10:45 a.m.

Children

At Athens First United Methodist Church, we invite families to worship together. Children’s Church is held for children in kindergarten through grade 2 most Sundays during the 11:00 a.m. service.

The Worship of God

Palm Sunday is the Sunday immediately preceding Easter. Palm Sunday commemorates the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem which was celebrated by a large gathering waving palm branches. This day begins the series of observances focusing on the events of Holy Week. This Sunday is also often referred to as Passion Sunday, marking the beginning of the passion or suffering of Jesus leading up to and including the crucifixion.

Gathering

The palms throughout the sanctuary are given to the glory of God by the Altar Guild.

THE PRELUDE

“All Glory, Laud, and Honor” | Burkhardt

THE SCRIPTURE

Martha Aenchbacher

MARK 11:1-11 | P. 44 NEW TESTAMENT

When Jesus and his disciples were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples and said to them, “Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ just say this, ‘The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately.’” They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?” They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting, “Hosanna! Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David! Hosanna in the highest!” Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

THE RESPONSIVE PRAYER

Today we enter Holy Week, with its cycle of life, death, and new life.

Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

Jesus, the holy one, enters Jerusalem as he rides on the back of a donkey colt. Crowds wave palm branches and cry out,

Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

Jesus, holy one, enter the gates of our hearts today as we join you in this time of your passion. With you, let us remember and celebrate your birth, your calling, your ministry.

Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

Jesus guide us through the streets of our journey. Open our eyes and our ears to the guiding of God's spirit who calls us to costly faithfulness and to joyous wholeness. Let us sing with all our selves.

Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

Hosanna in the highest heaven. Amen.

UMH 280 "All Glory, Laud, and Honor" | ST. THEODULPH

Verses 1-3

*THE CALL TO CONFESSION AND PRAYER OF CONFESSION

We sing, we wave our branches, we shout "Hosanna." Then, we turn away, to go back to our old ways, our old lives, our old sins. But God grants forgiveness and fills us with new life. Let us confess to the One who comes to fill us with grace.

Please note

During the 11:00 a.m. service, children in Kindergarten through Grade 2 are invited to exit the sanctuary following the Music of the Children to attend Children's Church in Hancock Hall.

Almighty God, we confess that we are not so different from those who welcomed Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, yet later shouted "Crucify him!" or remained silent in the face of injustice. We have betrayed you too, Lord Jesus by our sins both secret and known. Yet you died for people like us, and you rose on the third day that we might be redeemed. For the sake of Jesus Christ do not hold our sins against us. Forgive us and shine your face upon us. Help us to have the same mind as Christ, so we would know your promises; help us to have the same heart as Christ, so we might serve your children; help us to have the same Spirit as Christ, so we might go wherever you lead us. Open our eyes to the power of love, shown to us in the unselfish sacrifice of your Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Lyrics Translation

Lord have mercy,
Christ have mercy,
Lord have mercy.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Bob Winstead

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

THE SERMON

“It Is Finished” | Bob Winstead

Seven Last Words

by Michael John Trotta

This music has been placed in the choir library and today's orchestra was funded to the glory of God and in loving memory of our parents by the Jeremiah 29:11 Music Fund.

I. Father, Forgive Them

Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.

Kyrie eleison (Lord, have mercy)

Christe eleison (Christ, have mercy)

Kyrie eleison (Lord, have mercy)

II. Today, You Will Be with Me

Today, you will be with me in paradise.

Remember me when you come into your kingdom, O Lord, hear me!

III. Behold Your Son

Deborah Stephens, soprano

Behold, your son.

At the cross her station keeping, stood mournful mother weeping.

IV. I Thirst

Isaiah Feken, baritone

I thirst.

If you are Christ, come down from the cross, that we might see and believe.

If you are King, save yourself, that we might see and believe.

V. My God, Why Have You Abandoned Me?

My God, why have you abandoned me?

VI. Into Your Hands I Surrender My Soul

Sung by the Chamber Ensemble

Into your hands I surrender my whole soul.

Not mine, but your will be done.

VII. It Is Finished

Isaiah Feken, baritone; Andrew Bode, bass

And with a loud voice, Jesus cried, exclaiming: It is finished!

Darkened was the sun, darkness covered the earth;

torn was the veil; the earth did quake;

all of the graves were opened wide!

Truly this man was the Son of God.

Sending Forth

*THE BLESSING

We have gathered with the crowds crying Hosanna!

Because even if we were silent the stones themselves would have called out.

We have shared the hope for a world about to be changed,

and then it changed.

We have walked with another crowd.

One that called words of scorn and condemnation.

And now we follow the crowd as it leads out to the cross, and yet even as the world grows dark, we cannot lose hope.

Because God is with us. God will be with us. Whatever happens. We are not alone.

And so we watch the crowd and we follow...

 THE POSTLUDE

“O Sacred Head Now Wounded” | Burkhardt

Program Notes:

Michael John Trotta is one of the most “exciting and prominent new composers of choral music,” a sought-after conductor, and dynamic clinician. He brings an “intimate knowledge of the human voice,” a “rare sensitivity to the capabilities of a choral ensemble,” and years of experience as an inspiring educator to thousands of singers each year. His award-winning commissions are frequently performed at Carnegie Hall, at national conventions, and his recordings are broadcast worldwide. Dr. Trotta lives in New York City with his wife Rachel where he works full time as a composer, conductor, and clinician working with choirs throughout the country. This work is one of his newest, only published in November 2016. It will be premiered in Carnegie Hall in May of this year.

From Michael John Trotta:

The texts come mainly from Jesus’ last words on the cross, taken from the four gospels. Haunting in their simplicity, they expose a gamut of emotions expressed during the Passion, in a way that distills the most poignant moments of the human condition: from the tender forgiveness of the Father, Forgive Them to the hopefulness of the promise of paradise Today, You Will Be with Me. The work unfolds to reveal a complex tapestry of states of emotion: compassion (Behold Your Son), yearning (I Thirst), despair (My God, Why Have You Abandoned Me?), acceptance (Into Your Hands I Surrender My Soul) and resignation (It Is Finished). This setting uses various interpolations of biblical texts such as the Kyrie, “Truly this man was the Son of God,” and “All of the gates were opened wide” as a commentary on and in dialogue with the words of Christ, further expanding the story and the reaction of those present and witness to the Crucifixion.
