

Welcome

We're glad you're here! Thank you for joining us today. Members of this congregation have been gathering here to worship since 1804, when our church was formed to minister to the Native American and European settlers in Athens. Over the past two centuries our congregation has changed, but our mission remains the same: to make disciples of Jesus Christ. We are inspired by the words of John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, who encouraged believers to "do all the good you can, in all the ways you can." At Athens First United Methodist, there are many ways to get involved, grow in your faith, and do good in our community.

If you are unable to attend worship in person, each Sunday our 11:00 a.m. service is broadcast on WRFC 960 AM, and our 9:45 and 11:00 a.m. services are live-streamed on our website at athensfirstumc.org/webcast.

Nursery

Our nursery is available for infants through four-year-olds on Sundays from 8:15 a.m.– 12:15 p.m. The nursery area is located on the first floor of the building, off the Washington Street entrance.

Children

Worship activity bags (age appropriate for all preschool and elementary children) are available every Sunday in the narthex and by the south entrance of the sanctuary. Children's Church is held for children in kindergarten through second grade and follows the Children's Message during 11:00 a.m. worship all Sundays except for Communion Sundays.

Sunday School

We offer Sunday School for all ages, kindergarten through adult, each Sunday from 9:45–10:45 a.m. For a list of adult Sunday School classes and locations, visit athensfirstumc.org/adultsundayschool.

Connect

We are blessed to have a large congregation. Because of this, we offer many programs and ministries. It can be overwhelming trying to decide where to get involved. If you would like a buddy to guide you along this process, please notify a Helper. Helpers serve as part of our Welcome Ministry team. Look for them in the narthex or near the altar. You can also contact a Helper through our website athensfirstumc.org/helper.

Another great way to learn about the life of our church is through attending a Newcomer Orientation held every second Sunday of the month at 9:45 and 11 a.m. We also encourage you to visit our website, athensfirstumc.org, for information about our ministries, to register for events, and to listen to sermons from our sermon archive. Visit athensfirstumc.org/thesteeple to sign up for our weekly newsletter, the eSteeple. You can also connect with us via social media. Find us @athens_firstumc on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and Pinterest.

Our church office is open Monday through Friday, from 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. If you need assistance, please call 706-543-1442.

God of compassion, in Jesus Christ we behold your transforming light, yet we continue to live in darkness.

Preoccupied with ourselves, we fail to see your work in the world.

We speak when we should listen;

we act when we should reflect.

Empower us to live in your light and to walk in your ways for the sake of him who is the light of the world, Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

9:45 a.m. & 11:00 a.m. "Be Still and Know" | Michael Trotta Sung by the Sanctuary Choir

Even if the mountains were to fall into the sea, waters were to surge upon the earth, hope still lives in a most holy place, a place that shall not move, for I am here. Be still and know that I am your God. Be still and you'll find rest, a refuge for your soul. Be still and know. When nations roar and kingdoms fall, still you shall not fear. My strength and hope will keep you on your way; wars shall cease and the shields melt with fire; listen, then, for you will hear my voice. Be still and know that I am your God. Be still and you'll find rest, a refuge for your soul. Be still and know. Keep your mind on things above and not on earthly things; you're hidden with me in the safest place. Your old self has died and is risen again; your death shall be what brings you to new life. Be still and know that I am your God. Be still and you'll find rest, a refuge for your soul. Be still and know.

* THE DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow! Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia! Praise God the source of all our gifts! Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts! Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

THE SCRIPTURE READING

Corinthians 12:12-14

Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its many parts form one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³ For we were all baptized by one Spirit so as to form one body—whether Jews or Gentiles, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink. ¹⁴ Even so the body is not made up of one part but of many.

Response to the Word

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

All are invited to commune at Christ's table. If you need to be served in your pew, please call this to the attention of an usher. Gluten-free communion elements are available at the station in the front of the altar.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth. Before the mountains were brought forth, or your hand formed the earth, from everlasting to everlasting, you alone are God. You created light out of darkness and brought forth life on the earth. You formed us in your image and breathed into us the breath of life. When we turned away, and our love failed, your love remained steadfast. You delivered us from captivity, made covenant to be our sovereign God, and spoke to us through your prophets. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna, in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name, who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ, in whom you have revealed yourself, our light and our salvation. Your spirit anointed him to preach good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, and to announce that the time had come when you would save your people. By the baptism of his suffering, death and resurrection you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit. On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." When the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood. By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever.

Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen.

THE MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

"The Whisper" | Courtney

Sung by the Chamber Ensemble

In the desert, in the wilderness of life, I am searching for the One who searches me. As I wander, hungry, thirsty, lost, alone, I hear God's call; I hear the whisper of my name. "Come to the table, your name is written on My hand. Come to the table, your name is hidden in My heart. Come to the table, come to the table, come to the table and live." At the table, He prepares for me a place. He redeems me, I am pardoned by His grace. He restores me with his rich and lavish love. In His call, I hear the whisper of my name.

We receive your blessing, we receive your grace as we walk in the light shining from your face. May the peace that you give change the way that we live. We receive your blessing as we leave this place.

The Steeple

Martha,

Pleased to report the 1:00 to 1:30 a.m. Day of Prayer time slot was successfully filled.

God was talking right back to me, I felt like the guy in the antacid commercial, the one where the giant baked chicken is slapping the guy barbecuing in the back yard.

Certainly got my attention and I know I got more from it than The Lord did—that's the whole purpose, isn't it? He and you are sneaky that way.

The prayer guide was so helpful! I did skip the coloring as I failed early in grade school the section on staying between the lines so no need to subject even Jesus' capacity for tolerance to that potential mess.

The Church, family, friends, and big groups of the suffering and oppressed had good representation as the guide instructed, but I suspect it was the building up of my connection with God that will allow him to effect those people as he uses me according to his plan.

Thank you for recruiting me for the Day of Prayer!

Blessings Bill

Day of Prayer | February 18

The LORD is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth. - Psalm 145:18

We invite you to begin this Lenten Season by participating in our churchwide Day of Prayer. This is a time for our church family to set aside thirty minutes to talk to the Lord and give him our gratitude and concerns. We also ask that you let us know you're praying by signing up to pray. You don't have to select a time, just let us know you will pray. Your participation can encourage others to pray. Matthew tells us, "For where two or three have gathered together in My name, I am there in their midst." Even though we might not be physically gathering, knowing that many are praying on the same day can be powerful. You can pray from any location, but if you feel called to pray at the church, the Chapel will be open from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Prayer is time well spent with God and is a wonderful way to prepare our hearts.
