PRELUDE

“Tell Me the Story of Jesus” | Fanny Crosby

Flowers

The flowers on the altar are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Dr. and Mrs. James A. Green by their children.

Prelude Lyrics

Tell me the story of Jesus. Write on my heart every word. Tell me the story most precious, the sweetest that ever was heard. Fasting alone in the desert, tell of the days that are past, how for our sins He was tempted, yet was triumphant at last.

Tell of the cross where they nailed Him, writhing in anguish and pain. Tell of the grave where they laid Him. Tell how He liveth again. Love in that story so tender, clearer than ever I see. Stay, let me weep while you whisper, “Love paid the ransom for me.”

CALL TO WORSHIP

Gather us in, the young and the old.

Gather us in, to sing of God’s works.

Gather us in, to praise Jesus Christ.

Gather us in, to worship and wonder.

Gather us in, to know of God’s love.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERING AND OFFERTORY ANTHEM

"He Is Risen (Undertaker Blues)" | Adam Everett

Anthem Lyrics

They tried to put my Lord into the grave, but he ain't gonna stay. He is risen. He is alive. They tried to kill my Lord up on a tree, but the powers that be could not succeed. He is risen.
He is alive. For three days
the light was hidden from sight. Everything was looking like death had its way, but Sunday morning came, heard the word at the grave - you ain't gonna find my Lord rotting away.
He is risen. He is alive.
They tried to tell his people,
"Don't preach his name,"
but they preached anyway.
They just had to proclaim,
"He is risen. He is alive."

Verse 1

SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

God, you are before all things. You are beyond all things. In the midst of all things and all peoples you have made yourself known through Jesus of Nazareth, who revealed your compassion for the outcast, forgiveness for the fallen, and hope for the poor and hungry.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." Let us pray:

Come to us, Spirit of love, and let the bread and drink before us bear your life to our life, nourish a vision of hope, and unite us in one body of peace. Amen.

Receiving of the Elements

At Athens First United Methodist Church, all are invited to commune at Christ's table. If you need to be served in your pew, please call this to the attention of an usher. Gluten-free elements are available at the center station in the front of the sanctuary.

Song Lyrics

I know that my Redeemer lives; what comfort this sweet sentence gives!
He lives, He lives, who once was dead; He lives, my everliving Head. He lives to bless me with His love. He lives to plead for me above. He lives my hungry soul to feed. He lives to help in time of need. He lives to silence all my fears. He lives to wipe away my tears. He lives to calm my troubled heart. He lives all blessings to impart. He lives, my kind, wise, heav'nly friend. He lives and loves me to the end. He lives, and while He lives, I'll sing; He lives, my Prophet, Priest, and King. He lives, all glory to His name! He lives, my Jesus, still the same.
Oh, the sweet joy this sentence gives, "I know that my Redeemer lives!"

Response to the Word

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

When we gather to praise God and celebrate the sacrament of Holy Communion, we remember that we are people who have preferred our wills to the will of God. Accepting God's power to become new persons in Christ, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

Almighty and merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you and one another in both our actions and our inactions. We recognize that in Jesus our light has come, yet often we choose to walk in the shadows and ignore the light. Forgive us, we pray, for hiding in the darkness of this world more than loving the light of your righteousness made known to us in Jesus Christ. Illumine us by your word so we may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory. Amen.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth. In ancient days, you created us in your image to shine like the sun as reflections of your glory. When we hid from your glory and the brilliance of your light within us dimmed, you led us out of the garden and into the four corners of the earth. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Congregation sings:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna, in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name, who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you and blessed is the light of the world, Christ Jesus. Jesus shone with a light too wonderful for the forces of darkness to endure.

His ministry and teachings stand, even today, as beacons of justice and righteousness in a world too often darkened by oppression and hate. Through Jesus' humble beginnings, you invite us to humble ourselves and to live simply, that others may simply live. Through Christ's patient love and unfailing grace, your light shines on us with forgiveness and deliverance, that as your redeemed children, we might shine your light in the world as signs of hope and love.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." When the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." And so as a baptized and commissioned people, remembering your mighty work in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves, our daily lives, and our unique locations for ministry in the world—homes and hospitals, offices and stores, prisons and concert halls—as a living and holy sacrifice in union with Christ's offering for us as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us, that we may be your light in the world. Pour out your Holy Spirit on these gifts of bread and wine, that we may be filled with your glory and grace. By your Spirit, make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at your heavenly banquet. Through your Son, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy church, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forevermore.

Congregation sings:

Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen.
