

The background features a stylized graphic design. It consists of several fish-like shapes, each with a simple eye and a curved line for a mouth, rendered in dark grey. These shapes are arranged around a central red geometric structure that resembles a stylized cross or a series of connected lines. There are also solid red circles scattered throughout the design, including one in the top left and one in the bottom right.

Anthem Lyrics

I see the world breaking and falling apart, and I don't know what to do with it. I see hate building up all of the walls, turns family into enemy. What to do to do with it? I see love rising like a hurricane,
rising like a dead man coming up out of the grave. I feel love rising in my chest again, rising like the burning sun into the day. I see a world aching and longing to see all of its wars over and gone—in peace finally. In every heart—
this is where all of it starts. You and I, and our differences, and what we do with it.

SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

Christ invites to the table all who love him and who seek to be in unity with God and one another. When we gather together, the Spirit of the Lord meets us, and through grace, brings us into a community of love, hope, and peace. Let us pray.

Almighty God, in the abundance of your many gifts, grant us grace to fill one another’s lives with love. Redeem, restore, and remold us until we are made new. Transform our daily bread into the bread of life, and the cup that we drink into the cup of salvation. We pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Creator God, holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ. He prayed that we might be one as he is one with you, and he asked that we might be known by the love we have for one another. On the night...

We celebrate God’s love for us in Jesus Christ. As we remember Christ’s sacrifice through our communion, we proclaim the mystery of our faith.

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Come to us, Spirit of love, and let the bread and drink before us bear your life to our life, nourish a vision of hope, and unite us in one body of peace.

Amen.

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

When we gather to praise God and celebrate the sacrament of Holy Communion, we remember that we are people who have preferred our wills to the will of God. Accepting God's power to become new persons in Christ, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

Together we confess that God unites us in faith. Together we come to know the height, and the breadth, and the depth of the love of Christ. Together we are built up to the full stature of Christ. Together we know and bear one another's burdens. We admonish one another. We comfort one another. We suffer with one another. We need one another. We build up one another. Together we pray. Together we serve God in this world. Together we fight against all which may threaten or hinder this unity. Thanks be to God. Amen.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth. In your mercy and your grace, you create us in your image, call us to welcome one and all in your name, and lead us from sorrow to joy. When we were lost and afraid, in the bounty of your love, you delivered us from the prison of our fears, and offered us hope and a new beginning. Even when we turned inward and rejected your ways, you reached out to us anew, assured us of our place at your table, and taught us the joy of turning toward love. In the words of the prophets, you extended your mercy and grace by calling us back to faithful living, and by showing us the blessing of radical hospitality. And in the fullness of time, you sent your Son, Christ Jesus, to reveal the depth of your saving love for all people. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Congregation sings:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna, in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name, who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your mercy and compassion to us, Jesus Christ. Through Christ's patient love and unfailing grace, you invite us into your presence, rescue us from the paths of sin, and lead us into the joy of your kingdom. With Christ's presence in our lives, you forgive our wayward feet, invite us home in your mercy and your grace, and wrap us in the arms of eternal life.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." When the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." And so in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood. By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty Father, now and forever.

Congregation sings:

Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen.

The Invitation

This table is open to all who confess Jesus as the Christ and seek to follow Christ's way. Come to this sacred table not because you must, but because you may. Come not because you are fulfilled, but because in your emptiness you stand in need of God's mercy and assurance. Come not to express an opinion, but to seek a presence and to pray. Come to this table then, sisters and brothers, as you are. Partake and share. It is spread for you and me that we might again know that God has come to us, shared our common lot, and invited us to join in God's Kingdom.

The Receiving of the Bread and Wine

At Athens First United Methodist Church, all are invited to commune at Christ's table. If you need to be served in your pew, please call this to the attention of an usher. Gluten-free elements are available at the center station in the front of the sanctuary.

More than 380 years later, they are still upholding this promise by performing the Passion Play once every ten years! In addition to Oberammergau, Germany, the trip will include stops in Innsbruck and Salzburg, Austria and Neuschwanstein Castle in Bavaria, Germany. The trip dates are July 13-21, 2020. For more information and pricing, contact Stephen Mitchell. Don't miss this once in a lifetime trip! This trip will be led by Stephen Mitchell and Chuck Hodges.
