

Palm Sunday

March 20, 2016 8:30, 9:45 & 11:00 a.m.

Welcome

We are glad you are here! Thank you for joining us for worship this Sunday. Members of this congregation have been gathering here to worship since 1804. Over the past two centuries our congregation has changed, but our mission remains the same: to make disciples of Jesus Christ. We are inspired by the words of John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, who encouraged believers to "do all the good you can, in all the ways you can."

Attendance

Please let us know of your attendance this morning by completing the pew pad.

Newcomer Orientation

We invite you to learn about the life of our church, ways you can get involved, and how to become a member by attending Newcomer Orientation, which is held every second Sunday of the month at 9:45 and 11:00 a.m.

Sunday School

We offer Sunday school for children age 2 through adult each Sunday from 9:45-10:45 a.m.

Children

At Athens First United Methodist Church, we invite families to worship together. Children's Church is held for children in kindergarten through grade 2 most Sundays during the 11:00 a.m. service.

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest!

When Jesus and his disciples were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately.'" They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?" They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest!

Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David! Hosanna in the highest!" Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

*Please stand as you are able. | The congregation speaks or sings the text in bold type.

Flowers The greenery for Palm Sunday is placed on the altar to the glory of God by the Altar Guild. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest!

Note to Parents Children who led the processional will be cared for throughout the 11:00 a.m. service. Ages 3-4 return to Sunday School classrooms. Kindergarten-grade 4 will go to Hancock Hall for children's church.

*THE PROCESSIONAL OF THE PALM BRANCHES 278 "Hosanna, Loud Hosanna" | ELLACOMBE

THE PALM SUNDAY ANTHEM

"Lo, He Comes" | John D. Horman

8:30 a.m. | Sung by children's ensemble; Julie Caldwell, guitar 9:45 a.m. | Sung by the Lyric and Celebrate Choirs 11:00 a.m. | Sung by the Sunday school children

THE HYMN

280 "All Glory Laud, and Honor" | ST. THEODULPH Verses 1-3

THE CALL TO CONFESSION

We sing, we wave our branches, we shout 'Hosanna.' Then, we turn away, to go back to our old ways, our old lives, our old sins. But God is in the business of granting forgiveness and filling us with new life. Let us confess to the One who comes to fill us with grace.

THE PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Almighty God, we confess that we are not so different from those who welcomed Christ into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, yet later shouted 'Crucify him!' or remained silent in the face of injustice. We have betrayed you too, Lord Jesus, by our sins both secret and known. Yet you died for people like us, and you rose on the third day that we might be redeemed. For the sake of Jesus Christ, do not hold our sins against us. Forgive us, Steadfast God, and shine your face upon us. Help us to have the same mind as Christ, so we would know your promises; help us to have the same heart as Christ, so we might serve your children; help us to have the same Spirit as Christ, so we might go wherever you lead us. Open our eyes to the power of love, shown to us in the unselfish sacrifice of your Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ.

All pray in silence.

THE DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

If we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Christ has come to save us! Hosanna in the highest.

Translation: Lord, have mercy; Christ, have mercy; Lord, have mercy.

Sending Forth

*THE BLESSING
We have gathered with the crowds crying Hosanna!
Because even if we were silent
the stones themselves would have called out.
We have shared the hope for a world about to be changed,
and then it changed.
We have walked with another crowd.
One that called words of scorn and condemnation.
And now we follow the crowd as it leads out to the cross, and yet even as the world grows dark, we cannot lose hope.
Because God is with us.
Whatever happens.
We are not alone.
And so we watch the crowd and we follow...

"God does nothing except in response to believing prayer." -John Wesley

Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed. -Mark 1:35

(Jesus prayed) "Father, if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but yours be done." An angel from heaven appeared to him and strengthened him. And being in anguish, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground. -Luke 22:41-44

> (Jesus prayed) "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." -Luke 23:34

Week 6 | March 20-26

Thanks be to you, my Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits you have given me, for all the pains and insults you have borne for me. O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother, may I know you more clearly, love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly, day by day. Amen.

Our Roots in the Reformation

When was the Reformation, and where did it begin? What was Reformed? Were the people called Methodists once part of the Lutheran Church? Was King James a Lutheran, and did he really translate the King James version of our Bible? Was our founder John Wesley a Catholic or Lutheran priest? Learn the answers to these questions and many more as we discuss our Protestant heritage. If you already know the answers, then join us to share your wisdom and enjoy short biographical videos depicting the stories of some of the martyrs who made the Protestant Reformation and the King James Version of the Bible possible. See how Christianity was born again by the efforts of a few inspired heroes risking, and sometimes losing, their lives proclaiming that salvation comes only by faith in God through Jesus Christ. Join us for this informative and entertaining small group study with minimal reading. This group, led by Bob Dean, will meet Mondays, beginning April 4, from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m. in room 100.

Battle Plan for Prayer

The Battle Plan for Prayer, a new small group for men, is based on the popular movie War Room. This study begins with prayer's core purpose, its biblical design, and its impact throughout history. Readers will be guided through scripture in the fundamentals of how effective prayer works, inspired towards a closer, more intimate relationship with God, and shown how to develop specific prayer strategies for each area of life. It should be your first plan of attack in all of life's battles, not your last resort. If you want to experience the joy of mightily answered prayer, then it's time to engage with God at another level. Keith Wilson will lead this group on Wednesdays, beginning April 6, at 6:30 p.m. in Room 240. The study guide costs $10. For more information, contact Beth Dickinson.
