

Welcome

We are glad you are here! Thank you for joining us for worship this Sunday. Members of this congregation have been gathering here to worship since 1804. Over the past two centuries our congregation has changed, but our mission remains the same: to make disciples of Jesus Christ. We are inspired by the words of John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, who encouraged believers to "do all the good you can, in all the ways you can."

Attendance

Please let us know of your attendance this morning by completing the pew pad.

Newcomer Orientation

We invite you to learn about the life of our church, ways you can get involved, and how to become a member by attending Newcomer Orientation.

Newcomer Orientation is held the second Sunday of each month at 9:45 a.m. in the Hospitality Room.

Sunday School

We offer Sunday school for children age 2 through adult each Sunday from 9:45–10:45 a.m.

Children

At Athens First United Methodist Church, we invite families to worship together. Children's Church is held for children in kindergarten through grade 2 most Sundays during the 11:00 a.m. service.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Betsy Butler

With thanksgiving on our tongues,

we will sing praise for the feet of the saints, who walked this path long before us, who pointed out this path to us, who cleared the path with us.

With thanksgiving on our tongues,

we will sing praise for the wisdom of the saints, who shared their vision of God's ways, who lived faithfully by God's ways, who loved God all the way.

With thanksgiving on our tongues,

we will sing praise for the voices of the saints, who named God within us, who evoked God for us, who gave God to us.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE REMEMBERING OF THE SAINTS

We remember the great ancestors of our faith, from Abraham and Sarah, to Paul and Phoebe:

Ancestors of the faith, we remember you.

We remember the prophets and priests, the ministers and teachers who have taught us the way of God:

Teachers of the faith, we remember you.

We remember our grandparents and parents, aunts and uncles, those who have gone before us in our lifetime:

Family of our faith, we remember you.

We lift up the memories of children and grandchildren, brothers and sisters, husbands and wives, and parents and friends whose lives ended too soon:

Those close in our heart, we remember you.

We lift up to You, O God, the names of those we have lost in this past year from our lives, knowing that they are with Your heart forever.

PRAYER

We give thanks, O God, for all who have gone on to join with You beyond this life. We trust in the hope of resurrection and the promise of new life in Christ, and know that in our grief and celebration, O God, You are with us through it all, and we are not left alone. In the name of Christ, in whom love lives forever, we pray. Amen.

Anthem Lyrics I had a real good mother and father. They surely stood the test. Now they're in bright glory, and are sleeping on the Savior's breast. They set a good example for me. They taught me how to pray. Now I'm truly converted and walkin' on the narrow way. I know that if I cannot meet them on high, how lonely I will be, for what good is my journey if I miss out on eternity.

*THE LITANY FOR ALL SAINTS

Betsy Butler

God of the ages, we praise you for all your servants, who have done justice, loved mercy, and walked humbly with their God.

For apostles and martyrs and saints of every time and place, who in life and death have witnessed to your truth, we praise you, O God.

For all your servants who have faithfully served you, witnessed bravely, and died in faith.

For those witnesses who are still shining lights in the world, we praise you, O God.

For those we have known and loved; for teachers and colleagues and friends, for parents and grandparents, husbands and wives, brothers and sisters,

For all who by their faithful obedience and steadfast hope have shown the same mind that was in Christ Jesus, we praise you, O God.

We thank you for the truth they learned and passed on to us: that it is by giving that we shall receive; it is by becoming weak that we shall be strong; it is by loving others that we shall be loved; it is by offering ourselves that the kingdom will unfold; it is by dying that we shall inherit life everlasting.

Keep us grateful for their witness, and, like them, eager to follow in the way of Christ. Then at last, bring us together to share in the inheritance of the saints in light, through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

"Do Not Stand at My Grave and Weep" | Howard Goodall Sung by the Sanctuary Choir, Huston Collings, soloist

THE PRAYER

Almighty God, your people of all the ages live and praise you without ceasing. In our communion with you, we have communion with generations past and generations yet unborn. Before your throne, we are one with a great multitude which no one could number, and in praising you we join with people from every nation. Grant to your church on earth that, as we celebrate the triumph of your saints in glory, we may profit by their example and enter with them into the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ our Lord. *THE POSTLUDE

"Recessional on SINE NOMINE" | R.V. Williams

Anthem Lyrics

Do not stand at my grave and weep. I am not there, I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the softly falling snow. I am the gentle showers of rain, I am the fields of ripening grain. I am in the morning hush, I am in the graceful rush of far off birds in circling flight. I am the star shine of the night. I am in every flower that blooms, I am in still and empty rooms. I am the child that yearns to sing: I am in each lovely thing. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there. I did not die.

The Steeple

All Saints' Sunday

Today we celebrate All Saints' Day, when we remember and honor those saints who have gone before us. We will light a candle and ring a bell for those in our congregation who have passed away since this day last year.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son, Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

Calling All Military Families

Within our church family are military families—mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, and cousins who have a family member who is actively serving in our military. The Congregational Care Ministry would like to extend our care to these families. We have identified 24 military families within our church family and displayed their photos in the library hallway. We want to speak to them, ask about their active duty family member, offer support, and of course, pray for them.

Is someone in your family serving in the military? We would like to add you to the rolls of our Military Family Hall of Fame. We want to show our appreciation for all of our military families who sacrifice so much to protect us. Let us know who you are and who in your family is serving our country so that we can be more aware of your sacrifice. We want to salute you and your family—let us join you in this gift you are giving to protect our freedoms. To add your family member, please contact the church office or Carole Langley.
