“LIVING SIMPLY”

Welcome

We are glad you are here! Thank you for joining us for worship this Sunday. Members of this congregation have been gathering here to worship since 1804. Over the past two centuries our congregation has changed, but our mission remains the same: to make disciples of Jesus Christ. We are inspired by the words of John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, who encouraged believers to “do all the good you can, in all the ways you can.”

Attendance

Please let us know of your attendance this morning by completing the pew pad.

Newcomer Orientation

We invite you to learn about the life of our church, ways you can get involved, and how to become a member by attending Newcomer Orientation, which is held every second Sunday of the month at 9:45 and 11:00 a.m.

Sunday School

We offer Sunday school for children age 2 through adult each Sunday from 9:45–10:45 a.m.

Children

At Athens First United Methodist Church, we invite families to worship together. Children’s Church is held for children in kindergarten through grade 2 most Sundays during the 11:00 a.m. service.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD’S PRAYER

Betsy Butler

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Anthem Lyrics

You are my supply, my breath of life, and still
more awesome than I
know. You are my reward,
worth living for, and still
more awesome than I know. All of You is more than enough for all of me.

For every thirst and
every need, You satisfy me with Your love. And all I have in You is more than enough. You’re my sacrifice of greatest price,
and still more awesome
than I know. You’re the coming King. You are everything, and still more awesome than I know.

More than all I want,
more than all I need, you
are more than enough for
me. More than all I know,
more than all I can say,
You are more than
enough for me.

Song Lyrics

In this world I walk alone
with no place to call my home, but there's one who holds my hand. The rugged road through barren lands. The way is dark, the road is steep,
but He's become my eyes to see. The strength to climb, my griefs to bear, the Savior lives
inside me there. In your love I find release, a
haven from my unbelief.
Take my life and let me
be a living prayer my God to thee. In these trials of life I find another voice inside my mind. He comforts me and bids
me live inside the love
the Father gives.

Sung by the Worship Team

*THE PRAYER OF CONSECRATION

Most gracious God, we give you thanks for every good gift we have received through the bounty of your love. Guide us along the path of giving that binds us together and connects us with you, the Great Giver. Accept the stewardship of our prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness for the work of your Church, so that in every act of mercy and justice, we become conduits of your love. Everything we are, and everything we have, comes as a gift from your gracious hand—a gift which continues to renew us. Accept, O God, the tokens of our love and signs of our pledge and commitment which we have brought forward this day. By your word of blessing and grace, may they blossom forth as leaves on a tree, as flowers in our hearts, and as blessings in your kingdom. In thanksgiving for our life and for the life of Athens First United Methodist Church, we give glory to You, Lord God, the Source of all being; to Jesus Christ, Eternal Word; and to the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

Affirmation written by Steve Garnass-Holmes

We belong to God, creator of all that is and all that is to come,
abundant provider of the gifts in this life
and the gifts in our own hearts.
It is God alone who gives life,
who is generous beyond measure with grace and blessing.
We follow Christ, whom God sent to teach and heal,
to show us a new way of living,
with love and trust and courage, with joy and generosity.
In this faith Jesus gave of himself, even his very life.
He was crucified and buried;
yet God raised him from death,
and he lives among us, and grants his spirit to us.
We live by that Holy Spirit,
and entrust ourselves to the Spirit's guidance and empowerment.
As members of the church, the Body of Christ,
we devote ourselves to lives of love,
rejoicing in the power of forgiveness,
the reality of resurrection,
and the mystery of eternal life. Amen.

for we are part of all that is within life's river flowing.

With open hands receive and share the gifts of God's creation,
that all may have abundant life in every earthly nation.

Response to the Word

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

When we gather to praise God and celebrate the sacrament of Holy Communion, we remember that we are people who have preferred our wills to the will of God. Accepting God's power to become new persons in Christ, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

Holy God, we long to be faithful stewards of your abundant grace. To serve each other in love and humility. To serve your world with wisdom and energy. Forgive us when we stumble over pride, when our words and actions are not guided by love. Turn our hearts when we act in folly. Restore our energy when it is gone. Sometimes, O God, our efforts fail. But your abundant grace is strong and eternal, and forgiveness is ours through Jesus Christ. Thanks be to God. Amen.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth. You formed us in your image and breathed into us the breath of life. When we turned away, and our love failed, your love remained steadfast. You delivered us from captivity, made covenant to be our sovereign God, and spoke to us through your prophets. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna, in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name, who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Hosanna in the highest.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, Our Lord Jesus took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." Likewise, when the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you, this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood. By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever.

Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen.

My father would often talk with his children about "rising to the occasion." In other words, meeting the challenge: the greater the challenge, the greater the perseverance and tenacity required to meet it.

When I entered the hospital recently to begin this battle with something called "lymphoma," I had no idea what I was getting into. I knew this would be the first of six rounds on the schedule. I was hoping to open the season with Vandy; you know, a nice school, a great academic institution, competitive, feisty, but not too threatening....Well, it didn't quite work out that way. To my dismay and surprise, WE (and I do mean "we") opened with Bama.

Two great discoveries revealed themselves in the process: first and most importantly, the promise that God's grace is sufficient for all we need is ABSOLUTELY, UNEQUIVOCALLY TRUE!!!! Grace does not eliminate hardship and pain, but it's "sufficient" for it.

Secondly, that amazing grace is so often given, offered, extended through God's people, people like you, the physical, tangible expression of God's love; through your texts and cards and letters and emails and stories, through snapchat or chitchat or whatever it's called 🥹🥹🥹, all of these wonderful expressions of prayer. You have prayed and prayed and prayed, and with each prayer I would read or be reassured you were offering...my strength would literally rise.

Rising to the occasion is no solitary journey. It's about God and God's people. They make it together. You pushed me up that mountain this week. Thank you, thank you, thank you. Friday (September 30) begins round two...with four more after that.

I need you, can't make it without you. Hold me tight. I'll be holding you closely in my arms squeezing for all I'm worth. I don't know who it will be this week...Vandy?...Roast Beef State or Ohio St., but lymphoma is no match for God's grace and God's people.

Thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ (I Cor 15:57).
