ATHENS FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

SEPTEMBER 4, 2016
8:30, 9:45, & 11:00 a.m.

Welcome

We are glad you are here! Thank you for joining us for worship this Sunday. Members of this congregation have been gathering here to worship since 1804. Over the past two centuries our congregation has changed, but our mission remains the same: to make disciples of Jesus Christ. We are inspired by the words of John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, who encouraged believers to “do all the good you can, in all the ways you can.”

Attendance

Please let us know of your attendance this morning by completing the pew pad.

Newcomer Orientation

We invite you to learn about the life of our church, ways you can get involved, and how to become a member by attending Newcomer Orientation, which is held every second Sunday of the month at 9:45 and 11:00 a.m.

Sunday School

We offer Sunday school for children age 2 through adult each Sunday from 9:45-10:45 a.m.

Children

At Athens First United Methodist Church, we invite families to worship together. Children’s Church is held for children in kindergarten through grade 2 most Sundays during the 11:00 a.m. service.

Financial Report

We are standing on holy ground,
and I know that there are angels all around.
Let us praise Jesus now.
We are standing in His presence on holy ground.

*THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH | The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,

Anthem Lyrics

In the darkness can you hear us? When the night
comes are we alone?

Have you forgotten all of your children? When we remember we groan,
but our hearts cannot be silent. O God be our song in the night when our light is gone. God, be our hope, be our strength, be our sheltering place, our song in the night. Your road, it led Him into the city. The people, they trembled. You made a way. You raised your arm and saved all your children. Lord will you hear us when we say that our hearts cannot be silent? “Man of Sorrows,”
what a name for the Son of God who came, ruined sinners to reclaim.
Alleluia, alleluia.

Come, humble soul,
receive the food your

may share. He ever lives, and only they in whom
the Lord abides; and here, that he in us may be, He richest food provides.
Here we commune with him who died, us pow'r
o'er death to give; the life
of him now glorified we here receive and live.

Response to the Word

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

When we gather to praise God and celebrate the sacrament of Holy Communion, we remember that we are people who have preferred our wills to the will of God. Accepting God's power to become new persons in Christ, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

Merciful God, we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart. We have failed to be an obedient church. We have not done your will, we have broken your law, we have rebelled against your love, we have not loved our neighbors, and we have not heard the cry of the needy. Forgive us, we pray. Free us for joyful obedience, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth.

We praise you for all who labor for the common good and for those whose service is unappreciated. We thank you for children whose play is the work of learning to live in the world. We thank you for disciples who are obedient to the promptings of your Spirit in all their relationships. We thank you for your mercy that moves us to participate in your healing and blessing of the earth and all peoples.

You made us in your image and set us in a lush garden as caretakers.

When we chose to have it all to ourselves, you turned our freedom to the toil for survival. When we cried out in our misery, you delivered us from captivity and made a covenant to be our sovereign God. By the prophets you called us to return to you and delight in good food without price. You confronted us with the waste of laboring apart from you, and you asked us, "Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy?...Incline your ear, and come to me;

listen, so that you may live." And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna, in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name, who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you and holy is your work among us in Jesus Christ, who came to be born in the home of a carpenter, a trade he learned and practiced, a laborer in our midst. He called out fishermen and activists. He healed the servant of a soldier. He received the support of resourceful women. He delegated his ministry to his disciples, empowered all his followers to do his divine work in this world. By his suffering, death, and resurrection, you gave birth to your church, delivered us from the bondage of sin and the power of death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit. On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." When the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." And so as a baptized and commissioned people, remembering your mighty work in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves, our daily lives, and our unique locations for ministry in the world—homes and hospitals, offices and stores, prisons and concert halls—as a living and holy sacrifice in union with Christ's offering for us as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood. By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty Father, now and forever.

Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen.

THE PRAYER AFTER RECEIVING THE ELEMENTS

Loving God, you graciously feed us with the bread of life and the cup of eternal salvation. May we who have received this sacrament be strengthened in your service; we who have sung your praises tell of your glory and truth; we who have seen the greatness of your love see you face to face in your kingdom. For you have made us your own people by the death and resurrection of your Son, our Lord, and by the life-giving power of your Spirit. Amen.

Defying Gravity

Join Beth Dickinson September 11-October 2 on Sunday evenings from 4:45-6:15 p.m. for a book study on Defying Gravity, by Tom Berlin. This book examines the difference between “want” and “need” and illustrates how possessions can create an unbearable weight on our lives. This small group will go hand in hand with our stewardship season as our congregation examines what it means to live an abundant life. This study will be in room 224 and all materials are free. For more information, contact Kayla Calloway.

Financial Peace University

Financial Peace University presents practical, Biblical steps to get you from where you are to where you've dreamed you could be. In nine lessons, you will learn how to dump debt, take control of your money, spend and save wisely, and give generously! On average, families save $2,300 and pay off $5,700 in debt in the first 90 days! Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University will be offered Tuesday nights this fall from September 13-November 8, 6:30-8:00 p.m. This class will meet in room 222. The materials for this course cost $100; couples share one kit. Childcare is available with registration. Contact Jack and Joy Davis with questions.

THE ELIJAH PROJECT

AN INTER-GENERATIONAL PRAYER MINISTRY

John Wesley said “Prayer is where the action is.” We encourage you to join us in the divine activity of the Elijah Project! ONE Student Ministries will soon begin the fourth year of an inter-generational prayer ministry that has impacted youth and adults through consistent, expectant prayer. Registration for the Elijah Project is open through September 11! Contact Laney Jones if you have any questions.

Mission Harvest | October 2

This year on Consecration Sunday, we will celebrate by sharing a meal at Mission Harvest. We will gather as a church family (drop-in style) to fellowship and celebrate the offering of our financial gifts in Hancock Hall from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. With these gifts, we will be able to accomplish the work of missions ministry that God is calling us to fulfill. Look for more information in the coming weeks!

Pickleball

Please join us for fun in a new program called pickleball! Pickleball is a great sport that consists of ping pong, tennis, and badminton all in one. Instructors teach the game. This is a great game for adults young and old. Pickleball takes place Tuesday afternoons from 1:30-3:00 p.m., and is free for anyone interested. Contact Rusty or Mary Claire if you have questions.
